Administrative History

"In January 1909, in keeping with the provisions of an act of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, Governor J. Frank Hanly appointed the members of the Indiana Battle Flag Commission, whose duty it was to repair, encase and preserve the battle flags of the State of Indiana.

From the creation of the Commission to the present time [1924] they have built eighty-one cases containing flags which at present time are located in the Capitol building."
